

Little Louvain

Belgian fashion and lifestyle blog

My name is Elien and I'm the founder of Little Louvain. In January 2016 I decided to start my own blog. I wanted to combine the 2 things I love: writing and fashion. Little Louvain has been growing ever since. My goal is to inspire people and to take them with me on a journey in fashion wonderland. In these 9 months of Little Louvain I have had so many nice opportunities. Besides blogging I am also a marketing student and I will be doing my internship this year. This is a nice experience for me.
